JULY 13 WILLY WONKA AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY

When a mysterious and eccentric candymaker holds a contest to tour his magical factory, an amazing adventure begins. The original interpretation of Roald Dahl's beloved book – and Wonka's world of pure imagination – continues to captivate audiences almost 40 years later.

Rated G 1971 1 hour, 40 minutes

JULY 27 FOOTLOOSE

How would you survive in a town where dancing and "rock music" were illegal? Kick off your Sunday shoes and cut loose with the classic 80s tale of repression and teen rebellion that spawned a best-selling soundtrack, three Top 10 hits and remained so ingrained in America's psyche it became the basis for a popular Broadway musical 10 years later.

Rated PG 1984 1 hour, 47 minutes

JULY 20 ANNIE

Based on the Tony Award®-winning Best Musical, and starring such legends of the Great White Way as Carol Burnett, Bernadette Peters, Tim Curry and Ann Reinking, Annie is the timeless tale of a plucky orphan with a heart of gold. With all the songs we know (and love) so well, we'll bet our bottom dollar that you'll love this family-friendly flick.

Rated G 1982 2 hours, 7 minutes

AUGUST 3 MAMMA MIA!

The Broadway blockbuster got a Hollywood makeover with Meryl Streep and Pierce Brosnan, but the star remains those undeniably-catchy ABBA tunes. The winner of last year's Audience Favorite poll, Mamma Mia! is an irresistible escape and the perfect summer movie!
